Comments and Recommendations :

On 04/26/2022, Rachel Willis appeared in the District Court for Carroll County and was granted a Probation Before Judgement and placed on 2 years of supervised probation. All standard conditions apply. Supervision fees were waived. Special conditions require Ms. Willis to attend and successfully complete an alcohol evaluation, testing and treatment within 30 days and to totally abstain from alcohol, illegal substances, and abusive use of any prescription drug.

The purpose of this report is to inform the Court that Ms. Willis has incurred a new arrest and conviction.

On 07/05/2022, Ms. Thompson was arrested by the Ocean City Police Department and charged with four counts of Assault-Second Degree, Disorderly Conduct and Intoxicated Public Disturbance (D-025-CR-22-000939). The incident date of this offense was 07/05/2022. On 10/24/2022, Ms. Willis appeared in the District Court for Worcester County and was found guilty of Assault-Second Degree and sentenced to 5 months, 29 days, credit 29 days, time served and placed on 3 years, supervised probation commencing 10/24/2022.

It is requested that summons be issued alleging that Ms. Willis has violated the conditions of her probation. It is recommended that the Probation Before Judgement be stricken and that a verdict of guilty be entered. It is further recommended that probation be terminated in an unsatisfactory status and that a period of incarceration be imposed.
